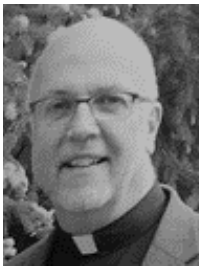
8TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME



Markings
…Questions, Quotations and Exclamations from the Pastor

Wednesday begins the Season of Lent. On Ash Wednesday, the Church calls all of her members to a public act of penance with the imposition of ashes on their foreheads and a commitment to enter a period of prayer, penance, and almsgiving that lasts throughout the forty days (not counting Sundays!) that lead to the celebration of the Sacred Triduum (Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday-Easter Sunday.) This period of time is called "Lent" from the old Anglo-Saxon word "lencten" which means "spring" and probably refers to the "lengthening" of the daylight hours during this time of the year. (Note that our clocks, watches, computers and cell phones will all "spring" forward next Sunday morning to allow for daylight to begin at an earlier hour since the daylight lasts longer at this time of the year.) Although the season of Lent usually begins in the cold of winter for us in Northeast Ohio, it generally ends with at least hints of warmer weather and the return of Spring.

Lent began as a period of spiritual formation for catechumens who were preparing for their initiation into the Church at the Easter Vigil. As the Church saw how fervently the converts were approaching Easter and embracing their faith, baptized Christians were inspired by them to make a deeper commitment to the way of the Gospel. As a result, Lent became not only a time for the baptized to pray for the new members that they would be receiving at Easter, but also as a time for their own spiritual renewal. Lent became a season of Prayer, Penance, and Almsgiving for all the faithful.

Next Sunday, we will witness our three catechumens (Judy, Nevaeh, and Addie) sign the Book of the Elect, and we will send them to the Rite of Election which will take place at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist that afternoon at 2:30. There, Bishop Perez will formally receive them as the elect for the Easter Sacraments.

Please pray for our catechumens as they prepare for their initiation into the Church this Holy Saturday. As you do, perhaps you will consider how you can join them in performing acts of prayer, penance, and almsgiving in an effort to renew your own commitment to the gospel

Family Perspective

Jesus warns us not to be hypocrites. We easily and forcefully criticize and condemn others for their faults while willfully remaining blind to our own. Broadcast media gives us daily training in doing this and we readily participate through social media. Make the season of Lent a season to cultivate the virtue of patience and compassion towards others and humble honesty for ourselves. Pray more. Criticize and post less..

North Coast Women in Construction

A group of local union construction trades have recently formed the North Coast Women in Construction in an effort to prepare women in our community to enter the building and construction trades. The group is working on putting together an all-female pre-apprenticeship program to achieve this goal. On the literature table today you will find an invitation to all women in the community who might have an interest in a career in the building and construction trades. For any questions, please contact Karen via phone at 440-776-8898 or at KVroman-Ells@CWintrades2.org
