ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

MARKINGS:

From Sr. Mary Jean Raymond, OSU

God is good...All the time!!!

How easy it is to reflect on the goodness of God when His grace and gifts are obvious and abundant. How necessary it is to remember and savor those moments when God seems to be absent from our lives. This week, we are basking in the abundance of God's gifts in the life of St. Aloysius parish family.

Terry Williamson, graduate of St. Aloysius and coach of our boys basketball team has been invited by the CYO to attend the Play Like a Champion program at Notre Dame University in South Bend. Terry was chosen from all the other urban coaches because of the positive Christ-like example he has given to our boys, other teams, officials, and CYO personnel through the years. God is good...all the time!

Our sport program received a $2,000 grant from the Bishop Gries Foundation to assist us in the cost of our basketball and sport programs. God is good...all the time! St. Aloysius Parish also was chosen to receive a significant grant to help us to extend our sport program into the neighborhood. This is the first time the CYO of Cleveland has considered expanding the teams beyond the local parish/school communities. This is a wonderful opportunity for us to become more visible in the Glenville neighborhood and to reach out in another form of evangelization. We will be working with CYO representatives to create this unique program which will hopefully become a model for other urban parishes. God is good...all the time!

As we enjoy these abundant gifts of God and feel His goodness, let us never forget that indeed

God is good...all the time!

FAMILY PERSPECTIVES

The gospel speaks of "the smallest of all seeds" which grows and becomes the greatest of shrubs". The seemingly insignificant acts of parents can have tremendous effect upon their children. The smallest acts of love, attention, and moments spent together are acts of faith and hope. Faith, because we show our belief and confidence in our children and hope because will not see results for many years

Congratulations Fr. Stephan Brown

Today we are celebrating with Father Stephan Brown his 25th jubilee of ordination to the priesthood. Welcome to all his family and friends as our community joins you in celebration on this happy occasion. We are honored to host this important celebration for the whole Church and in particular for the African American Catholic Community.
