FEAST OF MOST HOLY TRINITY

MARKINGS: Questions, Quotations and Exclamations
From Sister Lois Buck, OSU

How does one explain a mystery? Usually we think of an Agatha Christy novel or an episode of NCIS when we think mystery, There is always a solution or an answer. However, how do we explain the Holy Trinity?

This week as I was reflecting on the end of Easter, getting ready to write this reflection, I decided to read the scriptures for today's Mass,. However, they really did not provide an answer to my question. So, I did what I tell my students to do "look it up", and that's what I did. I chose to use my favorite labels for the Trinity (Creator, Redeemer & Sanctifier). Using the synonyms this is what I discovered (Creator- a person who fashions, Redeemer -a person who reclaims, and Sanctifier-a person who blesses). Now these are words we could use to possibly understand what the Trinity is.

The Holy Trinity is a love relationship between the Father, the Son and the Spirit,. It is the "Circle of Life". We have been fashioned in God's image to love one another thus we are called to create a loving environment for all we meet. We have been claimed. At Baptism we were "claimed for Christ." Daily we need to reclaim His love. Thus we are called to walk in the light of Christ, taking the light into a broken world that needs our witness of this love. Finally, we are blessed by every experience and person we encounter, for they too carry the light to us.

Our lives should reflect this love relationship, This week I have been aware of the Trinity in action. On Monday, Jason Nahra, a young man from St. John Vianney Parish, came to the preschool to present books to our Pre-K – Third grade students. This was the culmination of a year-long project that will lead to becoming an Eagle Scout. He truly created a loving environment as each child was called by name and given a book of their choosing, in hopes of encouraging these young readers.

During the week, three different classes have been preparing to graduate and move on to their next adventure, The preschoolers, who graduated on Friday, along with the Kindergarten and Eighth graders who will graduate this coming Thursday, have been filled with excitement and anticipation of their new beginnings. I see, especially in our older students, that enthusiasm to go out and share the light that has been fostered here at St. Aloysius.

Finally, we witnessed and shared in the joy with Isabella Ambeau, who received her First Communion this morning. What a privilege for us to share this experience with her and to offer our support as she joins us at the table of the Lord.

This weekend, we remember and thank those who have served our country, Let us remember the past with gratitude, pray for the present and hope for the future that by our example we may help to create a world that is reclaimed and blessed.

FAMILY PERSPECTIVES

On this Trinity Sunday we are reminded that the Church has chosen the language of "family" to name our human experience of God. We refer to God as Father, Jesus as Son and Brother, the Church as Mother, and other Christians as our brothers and sisters. The way we act in our family relationships reveals much about the God we worship.

MOVING ON—Collinwood Neighborhood Catholic Ministries (CNCM) is relocating the site of their ministries from 15706 St. Clair Ave. to the Five Pointe Community Center on E. 152nd St on the 1st of August, 2018. The new site offers CNCM office/meeting space plus the use of larger spaces when needed. The new location will also have better handicapped access and some off-street parking. Come visit us at our new home!

Please remember in your prayers our sister, Breneta Shaw, who passed away this week. Funeral arraignments are pending
