Markings ... Questions, Quotations and Exclamations from the Pastor

This Monday, January 21, our nation will pause to honor the memory of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., and to promote a day of service in his name.

Dr. King will be forever remembered as a prophet of peace and an advocate for civil rights. He was indeed a man who had the courage to speak out and confront the evils and injustices of his day. In the true spirit of the biblical prophets, Martin Luther King Jr. not only spoke out in lament against the evils in our society, but he also held up the vision of something better; a dream that could inspire generations to come. I hope that this national holiday can be more than just a chance to stay home from school or work. I hope it can be an opportunity for all of us to recommit to the values for which Dr. King and indeed our Christian faith hold dear: liberty, equality, and peace for and among all people.

On Saturday, January 12, our community celebrated Deacon Jim Paul home to the Lord, along with his family and representatives of the greater Church of the Diocese of Cleveland. I received a note from Fr. Ted Cassidy, a former member of the Parish Staff at St. Aloysius, who was unable to be in attendance for the funeral. "If you have an opportunity to tell the parishioners," he wrote, "would you let them know I was and am in union with them. I can never remember a time when Jim was not deeply faith filled. He had a way of trusting God and a sense of confidence that God's grace would prevail. He generated this spirit to his family and to the parish. He was a gem of a Catholic and a human being and a great gift to the Church. Jim, his family, all the parishioners and yourself are in my thoughts and prayers."

May Deacon Paul rest in peace.

Family Perspective

Today's gospel recounts the story of the wedding feast at Cana. Christ was merciful and generous to the couple in need. Indeed, Christ is present in every marriage covenant, to bring hope and to take what is good and make it better. This is a fitting time for families to celebrate the marriages of their members, to honor their commitment and Christ's generous presence in their lives.

Black History Month

February is Black History Month. Our Black History Month Committee has arranged for a number of event to observe and celebrate black history in America. Look for a flier next weekend describing these events. Mark your calendar now for a Parish Movie Night in The Parish Hall on Thursday, February 7 at 7:00 PM. We will watch the film entitled "The Courage to Love." This film tells the story of Henriette DeLille, the founder of the Sisters of the Holy Family in New Orleans. Transportation will be provided for those who need it.
