7TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Markings

...Questions, Quotations and Exclamations from the Pastor

There are a few items I want to bring to your attention this Sunday.

First of all, the annual Saint Aloysius Saint - John Vianney St. Vincent de

Paul breakfast will be hosted at St. John Vianney parish on Sunday, March 31. This is an annual collaborative event sponsored by the two parishes, and any interested parishioner from St. Aloysius Church may participate. We especially ask the members of our St. Vincent de Paul society to participate. The event will begin with mass at Saint John Vianney at 9 AM followed by breakfast at 10 o'clock. A guest speaker will address the group following the breakfast. This year's speaker will be Janine Kuestner, Development and Community Engagement Coordinator for Extended Housing, Inc. Janine will discuss the role that Extended Housing plays in the community as well as the topic of homelessness and mental illness. Janine will also be sharing stories from a new book she edited entitled Shadows on the Porch, a memoir written by Beverly, a life-long Cleveland area residence. Beverly writes about growing up with a mother with schizophrenia and her struggle to support her son, who continues to battle mental illness. Janine has an extensive background as an educator and coach and is proud to call Lake County her home. If you are interested in participating in this event, please RSVP to 255-0600 or email JMRISTAU 26@gmail.com.

Many thanks to Beverly Barry and the Evangelization Committee, along with Linda Jordan and her crew for a splendid Senior Luncheon last Saturday. Thanks also to the parish Men's Club who sponsored a pancake breakfast as part of our observance of Black History Month. The breakfast was delicious and everyone had a good time.

Please help us bring this festive month of Black History to a close by joining us for the Potluck supper and entertainment in the Parish Hall following our liturgy today.

Family Perspective

Families each teach their own set of values. The gospel speaks of judging, condemning and forgiving noting in effect "what goes around comes around". "Stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned. Forgive and you will be forgiven." Practice and grow with the gospel virtues of mercy and forgiveness. Be bold and stop the family blame game. Forgiving families prosper.

North Coast Women in Construction

A group of local union construction trades have recently formed the North Coast Women in Construction in an effort to prepare women in our community to enter the building and construction trades. The group is working on putting together an all-female pre-apprenticeship program to achieve this goal. On the literature table today you will find an invitation to all women in the community who might have an interest in a career in the building and construction trades. For any questions, please contact Karen via phone at 440-776-8898 or at KVroman-Ells@CWintradestrad2.org
