4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

Markings Questions, Quotations and Exclamations

There are some times when families need to come together. On those unexpected occasions, such as a major illness, a death, or a crisis of some kind, the members of a family come together to support one another and to work together to accomplish a goal. There are also planned events, such as special birthdays, graduations, baptisms, weddings, or other milestone events when families come together to rejoice and celebrate. There are also annual events, during which families come together to remember who they are as a family and to strengthen family unity and to pass on the family story to the young, such as holidays, family reunions, and anniversaries. Life's daily routines fill up much of our time from year to year, but some occasions call us to break the routines and make time for each other.

For the Catholic Family, the Sacred Triduum, or Three Days, is one of those times for family gathering. In fact, the Three Days of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday/Easter Sunday are the most sacred of liturgical days of the year for the Church. This is the time which is set aside to tell the Great Story of the Paschal Mystery: the story of Christ's suffering, death, and resurrection.

The liturgy of these three days is really designed as one sacred ceremony, spread over three days. On Holy Thursday, the Lord's last supper is commemorated in the ritual washing of feet and the celebration of the Eucharist. On Good Friday, we gather to solemnly remember the suffering and death of Jesus by attending to the proclamation of the Passion according to John and the veneration of the cross as symbol of our salvation. The Easter celebrations of Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday call us to rejoice and proclaim the good news that the Christ has been raised through our sacramental initiation of new members and the celebration of the Eucharist.

In a perfect world, we would all stop our routines and re-schedule our planned events in order to participate in the liturgy of these Three Days. Of course we do not live in a perfect world, and this is not always possible for us. However, I would like to encourage all of our members to make every effort to participate in as much of the Three Days as possible, and to bring others if you can.

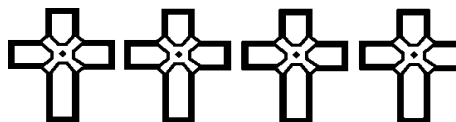

Lent ends officially on Holy Thursday evening as we begin the Sacred Triduum. To add to the festive nature of this time, the parish will provide a special dinner for those who can participate on Holy Thursday, April 18, beginning at 6:00 PM. The Mass of the Lord's Supper will follow at 7:00 PM. Please RSVP to the Parish House (216-451-3262) if you plan to attend and tell us how many you will be bringing. Let's do our best to come together as a family for the Sacred Three Days, to rejoice and tell our Great Story.
