Markings

Questions, Quotations and Exclamations

Sister M. Eugene Gear, O.S.U., former principal of St. Agatha-St. Aloysius School, died on May 4 at Regina Health Center in Richfield after suffering a stroke. She was 95.

Regardless of where she resided at any point in time, Sister M. Eugene's heart was always in the city. Though small of stature and soft of speech, she was an untiring advocate for the poor and underserved throughout her 75 years of ministry. She served the Church as a teacher, principal, congregational leader, librarian and program director, Marjorie Elizabeth Gear was born October 27, 1923, in East Cleveland, one of four children born to Eugene and Irene (Barry) Gear. The Willoughby Union High School graduate entered the Ursuline Sisters from Immaculate Conception Parish in Willoughby on, February 2, 1943 and professed final vows August 25, 1948. She earned undergraduate and graduate degrees in education from St. John College.

Sister Eugene served 65 years in the ministry of education, beginning as an elementary school teacher at St. Malachi School. She also taught and/or served as principal at St. Clare, St. Mary in Mentor, St. Joseph, St. Philomena, St. Aloysius, Christ the King, and Urban Community (Cleve.). After retiring from classroom teaching and administration, Sister Eugene continued her educational service, volunteering in the library at Archbishop Lyke School and at St. Aloysius/Agatha School. Interspersed with her school assignments, Sister Eugene served as program director at Martin de Porres Center; served two terms on the Ursuline Sisters' leadership team and, near the end of her active career, initiated and directed an after-school program at Cleveland's Woodhill Housing Development. In 2015, at the age of 90, Sister Eugene took up her final assignment in the ministry of prayer. She moved to Regina Health Center in January 2018.

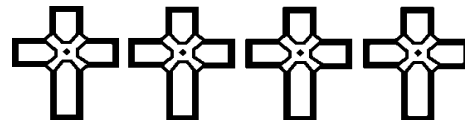

Sister Eugene will be remembered for her tireless service and her love of the community. She was a committed and faith-filled religious, a dedicated educator and champion of the poor, a loving aunt and a loyal friend. May she rest in peace.

"As I have loved you, so you should also love one another." What you do in your family to create a community of love ... is critical not only for you but for the strength of society and our church. It is a participation in the work of the Lord, a sharing in the mission of the Church. It is holy." Ask the Holy Spirit for help in being families who love one another.
