EASTER SUNDAY

Sr. Mary Jean's Column

Christ is risen!
Christ is risen!
Christ is risen!

We cannot remind ourselves often enough that we believe in and follow and preach about a victorious God – not a powerless, ineffective one.

As Christians, this feast should uplift us, encourage us, embolden us to bravely preach the gospel message, to boldly speak out and act out against oppression of people and human rights throughout the world today; to write, lobby, march, act against tax payer funds taken from food programs and international aid and redistributed to the wealthiest people of this country.

As Christians, we are given the wonderful task of looking in the tomb and finding it empty and therefore running as fast as we can to proclaim this message to the world.

As Catholics we are further challenged to call our bishops to accountability to speak out against the human rights abuses that are taking place in our own country and around the world.

We must look beyond the Alleluias, the lilies, the triumphal music, the Easter eggs, the pretty hats, the flowery flags and never forget our sisters and brothers who are dying in Ukraine, being bombed in the Sudan, starving in Gaza, being deported from the United States, being denied voting rights in our own democracy and so much more.

And yet...we are not discouraged, depressed, or disheartened because...

Christ has risen, risen indeed...and relies on us not to keep this a secret within the walls of our churches but to spread this word of hope to a suffering world.

How will I do this today? How will we as the body of Christ do this?

The world is waiting.
