FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sr. Mary Jean's Column

The last week of January visited us with extremely cold temperatures which led to many school closings including here at St. Aloysius.

Our school was forced to delay the activities that were planned for the opening of Catholic Schools Week - the UJAMAA Awards on Sunday, January 25 and class visits to church on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of that week.

This past week, we were able to finally celebrate Catholic Schools Week with our students, families, and school personnel.

On Monday and Tuesday, classes visited the church and heard an inspirational talk from our own Mr. Walter Morris and stories of the seven African American candidates for sainthood from Sr. Mary Jean. Sr. Mary Jean also invited the older students to talk to their parents about becoming members of our church. Perhaps sowing the seeds of this idea will bear fruit.

The banner for the seventh saintly candidate, Servant of God Friar Martin de Porres Maria Ward, has been ordered and if FedEx ever finds the right door on our campus, it will be displayed soon

School classes also spent time learning more about the life of St. Aloysius, the patron of our school.

Smaller banners have been ordered for our school classrooms and each class will adopt an individual saintly person. They will learn more about their life and why they were chosen to be a candidate for sainthood.

On Thursday families of the UJAMAA award winners were invited to a school assembly where these awards will be presented followed by refreshments in the Guild Room.

We can all be very proud of the catholicity of our school and the many ways our children are learning about our faith.
