26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY - SEPTEMBER 27, 2026

Sr. Mary Jean's Column

Good Morning Church Family:

Last Sunday 20 people gathered in the Guild Room to talk about the future parish Council and the upcoming fall raffle.

There was an abundance of creative energy and new ideas.

1. Nine women expressed their willingness to serve on the parish council. We would love to see some of our men commit to this ministry also. All new members will be formally introduced and installed on October 11.
2. The majority thought that Sunday mornings after Mass would be the best time for council meetings. Our first meeting will be Sunday, October 11 after Mass in the Guild Room. We welcome any additional members who missed last Sunday's meeting.
3. St. Aloysius will begin a Bereavement Group which will meet on the first Sunday of every month. Lizann Hudson, who holds a M.A. degree in counseling will be the facilitator of the group. We will begin with our own parish members and eventually branch out to welcome people from other parishes.

First Meeting is on Sunday, October 4 in the Rectory

4. Those in attendance also discussed and gave great input about our fall raffle and wine and cheese evening. Tickets will be going in the mail by the weekend. Several folks volunteered to help with the mailing on Saturday, September 26.

Thanks to everyone for the generous giving of their time, talents, and treasure to keep things happening at St. Aloysius!
